CHOCONA

The task is to shade some cells black.

A cell with a number indicates how many cells in a bold-outlined region must be shaded black. In a region without a number any number of cells may be black.

The black cells must form rectangles, independently of the region's borders. The black rectangles must not be orthogonally adjacent.

★★☆☆☆   CHOC-2-002P; © SortedPuzzles