

FOUR WINDS

The task is to draw a horizontal or a vertical line in each white cell.

Each number represents the total number of white cells occupied by the lines originating from that number. Lines cannot enter other numbered black cells or intersect with other lines.

