

EASY AS ABC

The goal is to place letters A to E in the grid such that they appear exactly once in each row and column. There is always one cell that remains empty in every row and column.

The letters given outside the grid are the first letters that can be seen in the corresponding row or column in that direction.

