

HEKI

The goal is to divide the entire grid into regions of six cells.

Each region contains exactly two given numbers.

A number clue indicates how many cells of the same region are orthogonally adjacent to the cell with this number.

				1
3		3
2					2
			3	2
	2	2			1

