

HEKI

The goal is to divide the entire grid into regions of six cells.

Each region contains exactly two given numbers.

A number clue indicates how many cells of the same region are orthogonally adjacent to the cell with this number.

		3		3
1	2	1			2
		1	2		2
	2

