MINTONETTE

Connect circles in pairs by drawing a line that goes horizontally and vertically through the centers of the cells.

Lines cannot touch or cross themselves or each other. If a circle contains a number, it represents the number of turns for the line between two circles. If two circles have no number, a line may make any number of turns between these circles.

All cells in the grid must be used by the lines, and each circle must be connected to another circle.

★★★★★   MINT-5-005P; © SortedPuzzles