NEIGHBORS

The puzzle grid contains numbers in some cells. The goal is to divide the entire grid into regions of any shape; all the regions must have the same number of cells.

Every region must contain exactly one cell with a number in it, and have as many neighbours as the number indicates. Regions are considered as neighbors when they share a part of their border.

2		3	4	2
	3				4
4			5		3
3			4	5
	3		4
	2		3	4	2

★☆☆☆☆   NBOR-1-001P; © SortedPuzzles