

NURIBOU

Shade some cells in the grid black such that the grid is divided into areas of white cells. Each area must contain one cell with a number, wherein the number how many white cells are in that area (including the numbered cell).

Black cells form horizontal or vertical stripes that cannot share an edge. Each black stripe must be exactly one cell wide. If two stripes are connected diagonally, their lengths must be different.

6						3			9
					10
	2					1
		14							3
				2
		6
	2		1		1				1

