NEIGHBORS

The puzzle grid contains numbers in some cells. The goal is to divide the entire grid into regions of any shape; all the regions must have the same number of cells.

Every region must contain exactly one cell with a number in it, and have as many neighbours as the number indicates. Regions are considered as neighbors when they share a part of their border.

	3				3
				4
2	4	6
					3
			4
		3

★★☆☆☆   NBOR-2-002P; © SortedPuzzles