

HEKI

The goal is to divide the entire grid into regions of six cells.

Each region contains exactly two given numbers.

A number clue indicates how many cells of the same region are orthogonally adjacent to the cell with this number.

	1
3			2
3				2	2
	2		2	2
					2

