NEIGHBORS

The puzzle grid contains numbers in some cells. The goal is to divide the entire grid into regions of any shape; all the regions must have the same number of cells.

Every region must contain exactly one cell with a number in it, and have as many neighbours as the number indicates. Regions are considered as neighbors when they share a part of their border.

5				3
					6	3
	5					3
				5		5
3					5
		6
3				3	4		3
2

★★★★☆   NBOR-4-004P; © SortedPuzzles