KUROTTO

The task is to shade some cells black.

Cells with circles cannot be black. The number in a circle indicates the sum of the number of continuous black cells extending from it, vertically and horizontally.

Empty circles may have any number of black cells around them.