

MOON OR SUN

The puzzle grid is divided into regions and contains black and white circles in some cells. Draw a single non-intersecting loop through the circles such that the loop crosses borders of each region exactly twice.

In a region, the loop must either visit all cells with black circles or all cells with white circles. Regions with visited black circles must alternate with regions where white circles were visited.

MSUN-4-014P; © SortedPuzzles