

CASTLE WALL

Draw a single closed non-intersecting loop through the empty cells.

Black cells must be outside the loop; white bordered cells must be inside the loop.

Numbers and arrows refer to the total length of loop segments in the arrow's direction. In other words, the number shows how many cell borders in the arrow's direction are crossed by the loop.

