

MOON OR SUN

The puzzle grid is divided into regions and contains black and white circles in some cells. Draw a single non-intersecting loop through the circles such that the loop crosses borders of each region exactly twice.

In a region, the loop must either visit all cells with black circles or all cells with white circles. Regions with visited black circles must alternate with regions where white circles were visited.

