

GRADES

The goal is to fill some cells of the grid with digits 1–9. The digits cannot touch each other horizontally, vertically, or diagonally.

The numbers given at the top and left side show how many cells in the corresponding column and row need to be filled with numbers.

The numbers at the bottom and right side are the sum totals of the digits placed in the corresponding columns and rows, respectively.

