PAINT AREA

Shade some cells of the grid black such that the entire area of a region is the same color (that is, either shaded or unshaded).

A cell with a number indicates how many black cells are adjacent to it. All black cells must form an orthogonally continuous area and no 2×2 cell area within the grid can have the same color.