

CORNER LOOP

The puzzle grid is a lattice of dots. The task is to connect horizontally and vertically adjacent dots such that the connected dots form a single, non-intersecting loop with no loose ends.

A number in a cell indicates how many times the loop turns by 90 degrees at the dots surrounding this cell.

