

STARS AND ARROWS

The grid has arrows in some cells.

The goal is to place stars in the empty cells of the grid such that each arrow points to exactly one star and each star is pointed at by exactly one arrow.

Numbers outside the grid show the total number of stars in the corresponding row or column.

