

CIRCLES AND SQUARES

Shade some cells in the grid black to divide it into square areas of white cells. Cells with black circles must be shaded black while those with white circles can never be black.

No 2×2 cell area within the grid can be completely black.

All the black cells must form an orthogonally (horizontally and vertically) continuous area.

